What is the cost to attend UCF?

2022-2023 DIRECT ANNUAL COSTS

Direct costs to attend UCF include tuition and fees as well as room and board. As an example, if you are a full-time, undergraduate student who is a Florida resident and live on or off-campus, the direct costs are $17,452. This is based on 28 credit hours, which is the average enrolled by students each academic year.

Indirect costs include books and supplies, transportation, and personal expenses. Your indirect costs may vary.

Expected Family Contribution – EFC (Changing Next Year to Student Aid Index - SAI)

- This is the figure used to determine eligibility for federal student aid.
- This figure results from the info provided on the FAFSA.
- This figure is reported on the Student Aid Report (SAR).
- Determines Pell eligibility

2022-2023 MAXIMUM PELL

The maximum Federal Pell
Grant for

2023-2024

(July 1, 2022 – June 30, 2023)

$6,895

Expected Family Contribution

- A family's EFC may vary for schools that require the CSS Profile.
- EFC is made up of two parts:
 - The amount expected from the parent(s)
 - The amount expected from the student
- Some schools, Duke University as an example, expect a minimum contribution from a 1st year student regardless of income. In the case of Duke, this is $2600 per year.

Scholarship Data Collection

- Request the information from the students.
- Create a survey.
- Ask students to share scholarship info/award offers with you.
- Use social media to promote scholarship collection (*best practice – let students and parents know you don't share names, just overall $ amounts).
- Contact the institutions to send you the info (FIU, UM, MDC Honors, etc...).
- Remember to multiply the amount of the scholarship by 4 if the student will receive it every year (such as institutional scholarships).

Bright Futures – FAS
